

2011
NAI REGION 4
INTERPRETIVE PROJECT GRANTS PROGRAM

The NAI Region 4 Interpretive Project Grants Program is designed to provide a source of funding for small projects within the region. Funding for these grants is made available at the discretion of the NAI Region 4 Board of Directors. $3,000 is available in 2011. The IPG Committee consists of members of NAI Region 4 who guide the grant process, review applications, and make recommendations to the Region 4 Board of Directors.

Eligibility

1. Grants are available to individuals, agencies, organizations, and institutions that are current members of Region 4 of the National Association for Interpretation (NAI) at the time of application. Members of the Regional Executive Board and the Interpretive Project Grants committee shall be ineligible to submit grant applications or vote on applications from their organization during their term of service. However, other members of their agency staff, organization, or institutions will be eligible to submit grant requests.
2. Projects to be funded must be related to interpretation. Funds may be used for equipment, materials, research, planning, design, or production of interpretive projects and programs.
3. Grant requests may be made in amounts up to and including $1000.00. Matching funds or in-kind services will not be required, but should be listed on application if used.

Application Deadline

1. The Interpretive Project Grants Program will be advertised annually in the spring and/or summer issues of the regional newsletter. The application deadline will be September 5, 2011. Grants will be awarded to successful applicants in December.
2. By submitting an application, the recipient agrees to provide a written report to the Regional Director and IPG Chair in the form of a Region 4 newsletter article. This article, to meet the fall FourThought deadline, must be submitted no later than September 5 of the calendar year following the grant application. The article must describe the project, how the funds were utilized and the progress/ success of the project. Information that may allow other members to use the project as a model for their own work is suggested. Recipients agree to visibly acknowledge NAI Region 4's financial support for their project.
3. Mail, e-mail (in PDF or MS Word format) or fax applications to Interpretive Project Grants Committee Chair: Rick Stronks, NAI Region 4 IPG Committee, Box 219, Whitney, Ontario, Canada, K0J 2M0. Voice (613) 637-2828, Fax (613) 637-2138 or e-mail: rick.stronks@ontario.ca.
